MAJOR COLLABORATIONS and PROJECTS

Special advisor to the European Social Survey on the transition to self-administration, (2022-present). <https://www.europeansocialsurvey.org>

The European Social Survey (ESS) is the largest European Research Infrastructure in the social sciences. Historically, the survey has been carried out every two years in about 30 countries using face-to-face interviewing. The ESS is planning to move to self-completion as the interview mode. I advise them on issues regarding the effects on data quality; in particular effects on comparability of ESS data across time, and between countries. I also carry out analytical work on existing experimental data, and advise them on data collection procedures.

Coordinator at Utrecht University of the Data Collection Innovation Network (2016-present)

A joint research program by Utrecht University and Statistics Netherlands into innovations in data collection (mobile phones, big data, integration of data sources), <https://win.sites.uu.nl>. In this project Statistics Netherlands and the data quality group at Utrecht University collaborate on innovations in data collection. I lead and coordinate the efforts from the UU. The collaboration has led to 3 joint Ph.D. students, numerous publications, 2 large European grants, and has impacted how Statistics Netherlands, and other National Statistical Institutes collect data; in particular for studies that have previously used diary (household budget, time use, travel). Within the UU I lead the data quality group consisting of 3 assistant professors, and several postdocs/Ph.D. students.

Member of the European Master in Official Statistics governing board (2021-present). European commission/Eurostat.

Utrecht University is one of about 30 universities offering a Master programme awarded with the label 'European Master of Official Statistics'. I have coordinated this programme in Utrecht from 2017, and since 2022 have been a member of the EU governing board. The board consists of 4 representatives of universities and national statistical institutes. Together we take the decision on the accreditation and renewal of EMOS labels, and we try to advance the programme (e.g. by setting up exchange programmes, sharing of materials, webinars).

Director of Education, department of Methods and Statistics, Utrecht University (2021-present)

- Chair of the Education Management Team. Discuss staffing of courses, adjust courses based on evaluations from students and fellow teachers, develop new policies.
- Member of the General Management Team of the department.
- Manager of 9 staff members with an exclusive teaching role. Performance and development conversations, coaching.
- Leadership of the educational content of the department, and staffing.
- Member of the Board of Studies Undergraduate School FSW.
- Contact person for other educational directors of other programmes where the M&S department teaches, examination committee, support staff
- Member of the visitation committee for the Research Master Child Development and Education (UvA), 2023,
- selection committee for the new Director of Education for Professionals at FSW, 2023.
- Started and completed educational change within the M&S department:
  - Transition to the use of open software in all education
  - Use of more formative assessment instead of summative assessment in bachelor courses.
  - Organization of new courses around Applied Data Science (minor AI, profile within Graduate School of Life/Natural Sciences)
  - Organization of new courses within the Utrecht Summer School, such as on Machine Learning, Python. This includes online courses.
